I N M E M O R Y O F K E C I A

My inner thoughts are wandering
To the girl who lies asleep
Waiting for the day when she'll be gone.
My memories are pondering
All the times that we had shared
And it hurts to think that now
She sleeps alone.
And I remember how she had
A sparkle in her eye
A love that she could give you
That money couldn't buy
And the energy that filled her soul
You swore would never die . . .
Would never die.
But now she takes a final bow
As the curtain falls
No more grand finales, no more curtain calls.
And now the sun is setting as she sails away
How do you say goodbye to the girl you swore would never die?

Lunch Time

Two beautiful smiles.

Wow, all the lawn is ours!

Eat fast, we only have 30 minutes.

Why did you guys leave me by myself?

Gatherings

You take a hold of it this way, and just keep turning.

Well, I don't know if I should do that.

Yes, I had four Big Macs.

This cafeteria food is for the birds.

New Friends and Old Friends

*Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test —
Time and change — are surely best;
Brow and wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.
For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die,
New friends must their place supply.
Cberish friendship in your breast —
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.*

The cavers are back! After several below par years, the 1983 cavers produced an excellent 5-4 and 1 season. In league play they finished with a 3-1 and 1 record, tying for second place with Crawford in the strong central league. Primarily, a ball control team which highlighted a running offense augmented by short accurate passes. The cavers averaged over four yards per play.

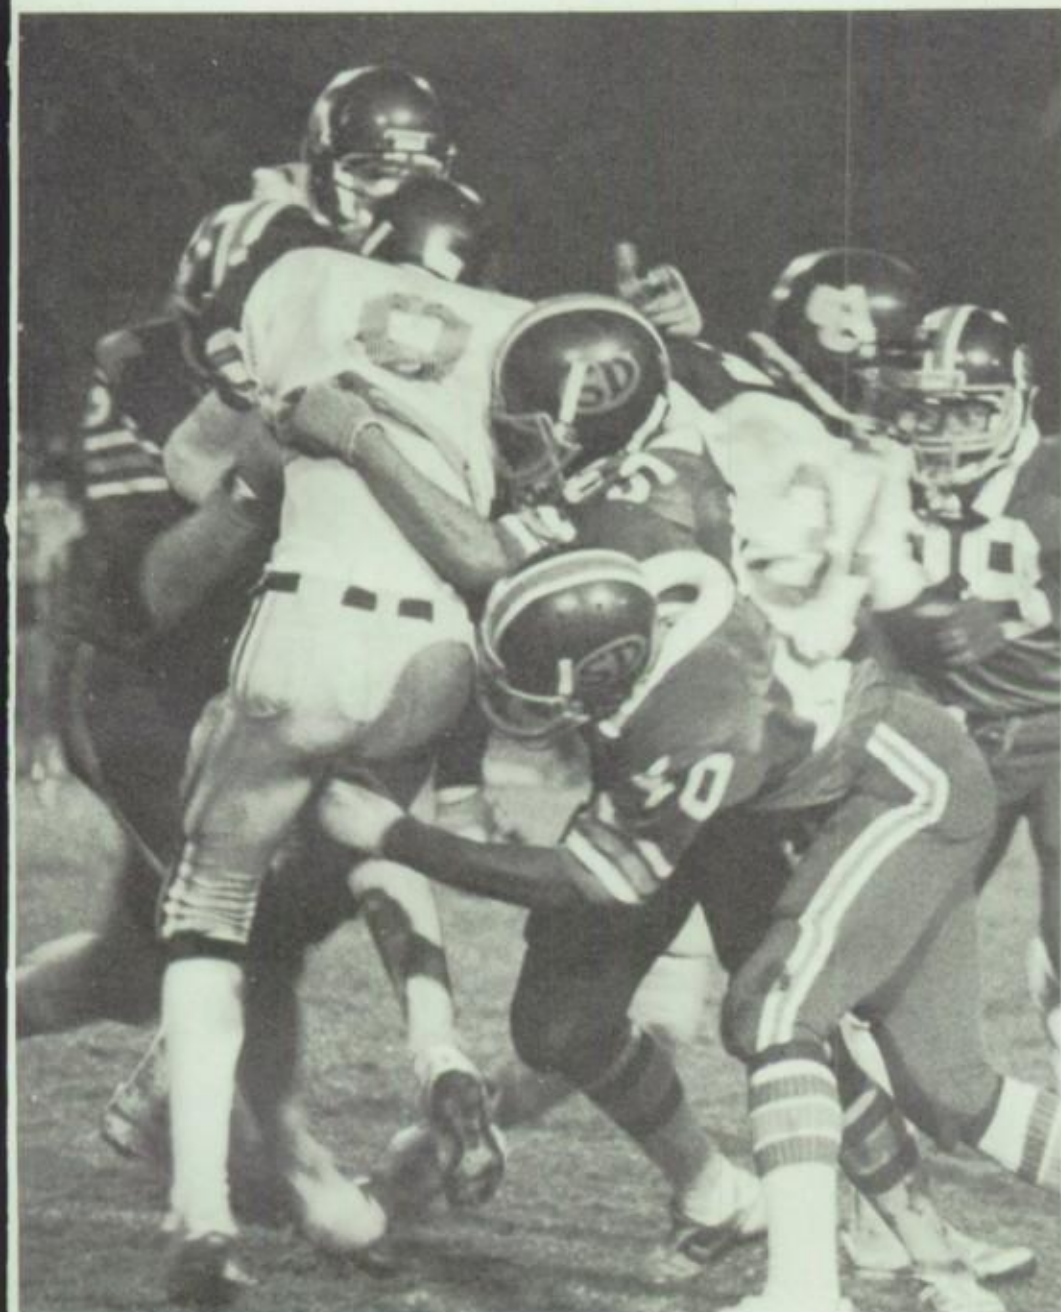

Eleven cavers were selected for all-league honors. First team: Victor Gonzalez, offensive line; Deangelo Mitchell, receiver; Kenny Martin, runningback; Kevin Webb, defensive back; Dwayne Cumberland, linebacker. Second team: Glendon Knott, offensive line; Glen Arnold, defensive line. Honorable mention: Bob Uram, Lester Brown, Ruben Hueso, and Charlie Davis.

The 1983 Caver gridmen opened up the season with a 19-3 victory in the friendship bowl against Serra, and ended up the season with an exciting homecoming win over arch rival Hoover, 21-12.

Scholar — Leader

A T H L E T E

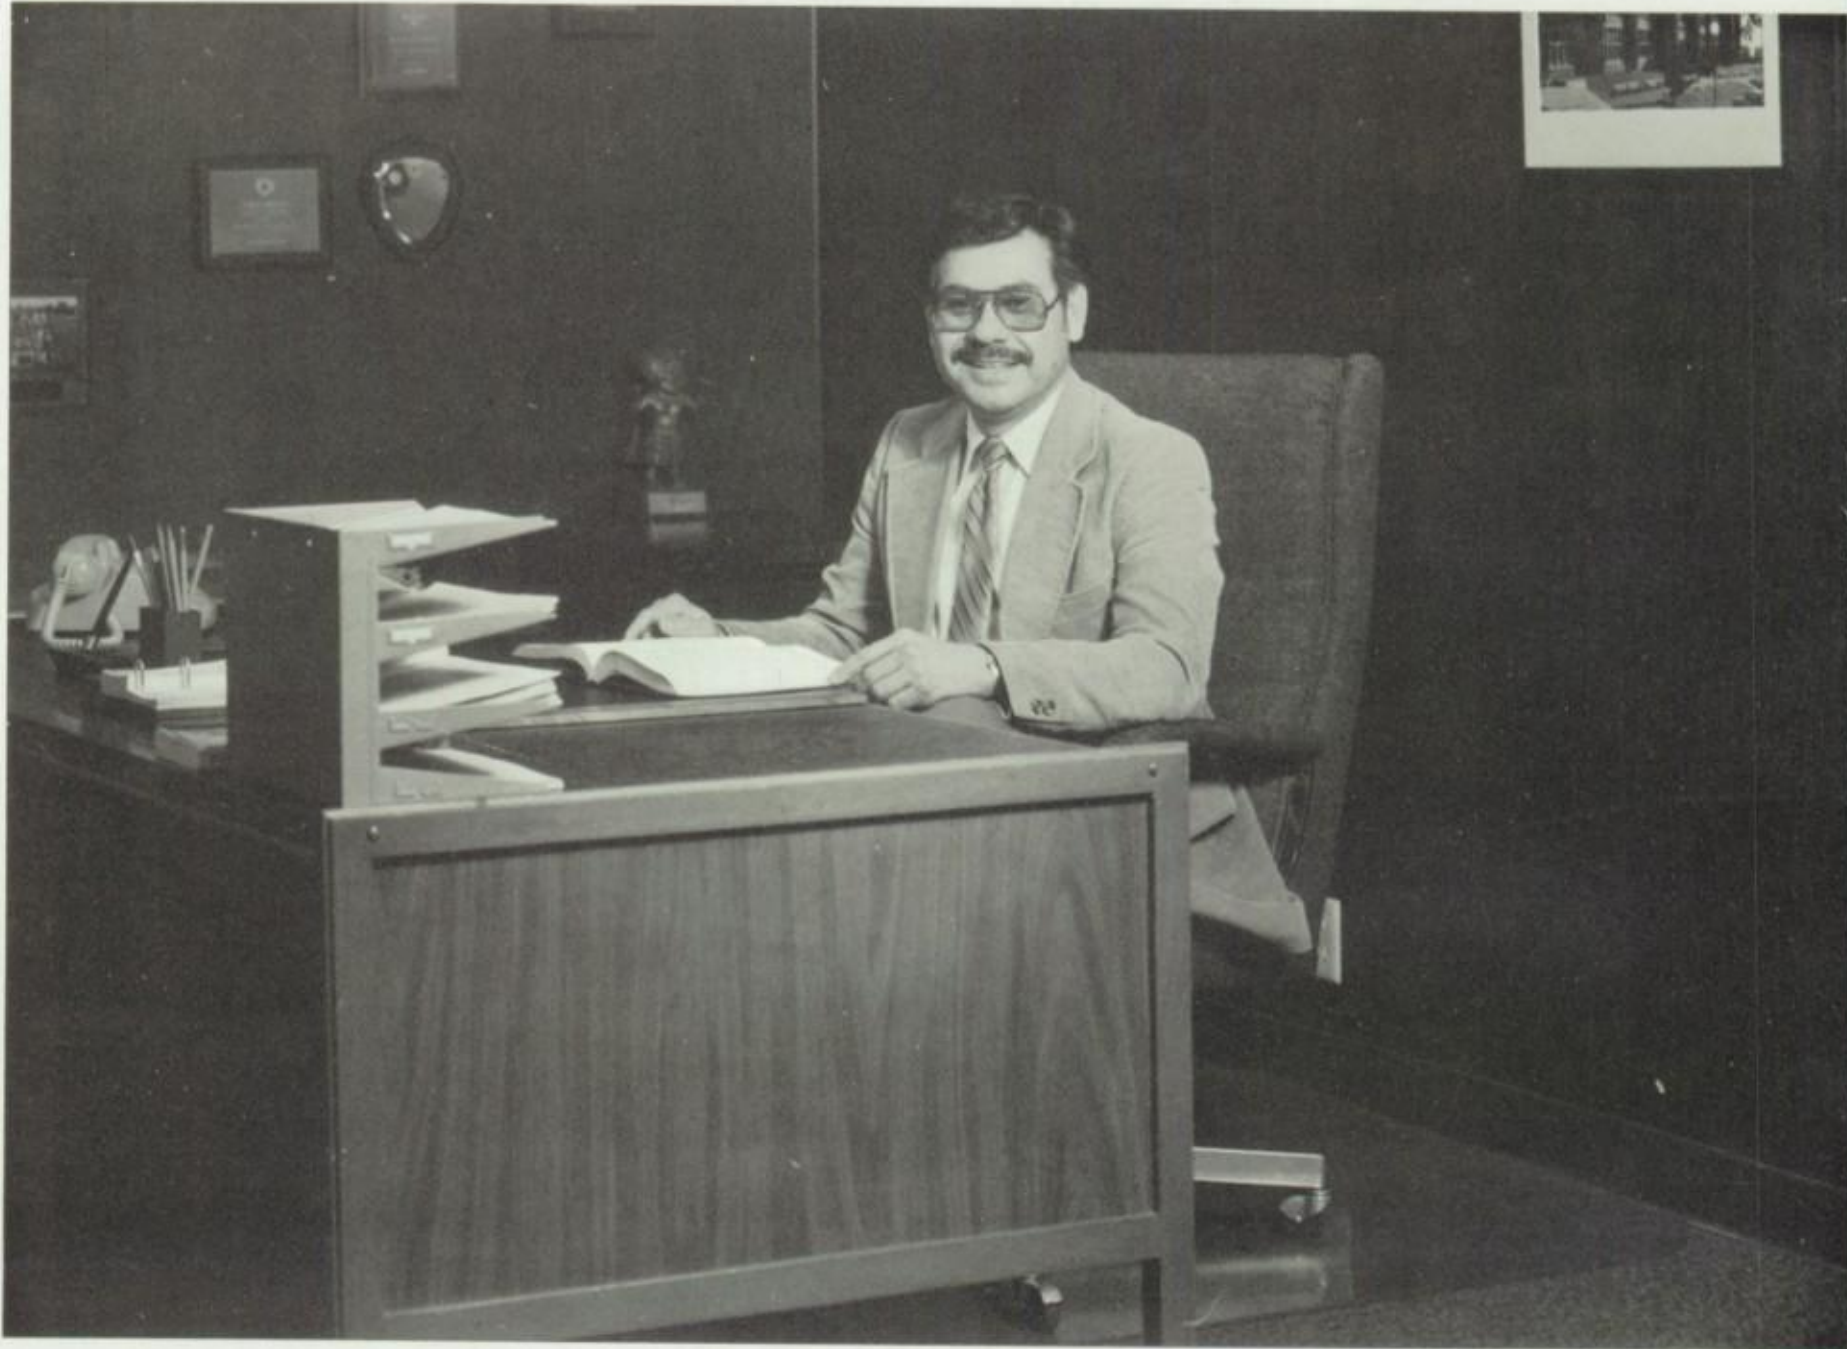

Kevin Webb —

A Central League Scholar from San Diego High School is both prominent in athletics and academics. During his high school career he has made it as the all-League defensive back and has also been selected to participate in the Los Angeles Times All-C.I.F. team. As a great asset to his team Kevin acted as a free safety, was his teams MVP on defense and served as co-captain, in addition to leading the team in tackles and assists. Kevin is not merely gifted with physical talent, he is also gifted with a bright alert mind; he has remained on the honor roll for six of seven semesters, maintained a 3.22 grade point average and lettered two years. While accomplishing all of this he has managed to work six hours a day. He is a member of the U.S. Academic Academy and won his class trigonometry award. The son of Mrs. Shirley Webb of San Diego plans to attend UC Berkely and become an architect. Coach Scotty Harris calls him "extremely coachable."

PRINCIPAL — Dr. Robert Amparan

To the Class of 1984

There are some events that are natural bench marks of our lives. Graduating from high school is certainly one of these memorable occasions. Moreover, it is appropriate that the theme Renaissance, was chosen to commemorate this year's annual.

The students who are graduating this year from the "New Castle" will not require any stimulus to successfully meet the challenge of college, full time work, marriage or whatever may lie ahead. However, those of us who remain must constantly revive the renaissance that lies within each of us to constantly perform at our best.

It may appear difficult to comprehend leaving San Diego High School. All the friends and teachers who have been part of your daily routine for the past three years. However, your leaving is an indication of your successful completion of high school and that you have acquired the competence to take the next step toward the rest of your life.

Good Luck, and may you prove George Orwell wrong.

Past to Future

*Doesn't it seem like yesterday
That we walked into this place
Of the old friends and the new
And those memories we won't erase*

*Being all together
And of all the fun we had
Laughing at the past years
When we were mischievous and
Sometimes bad*

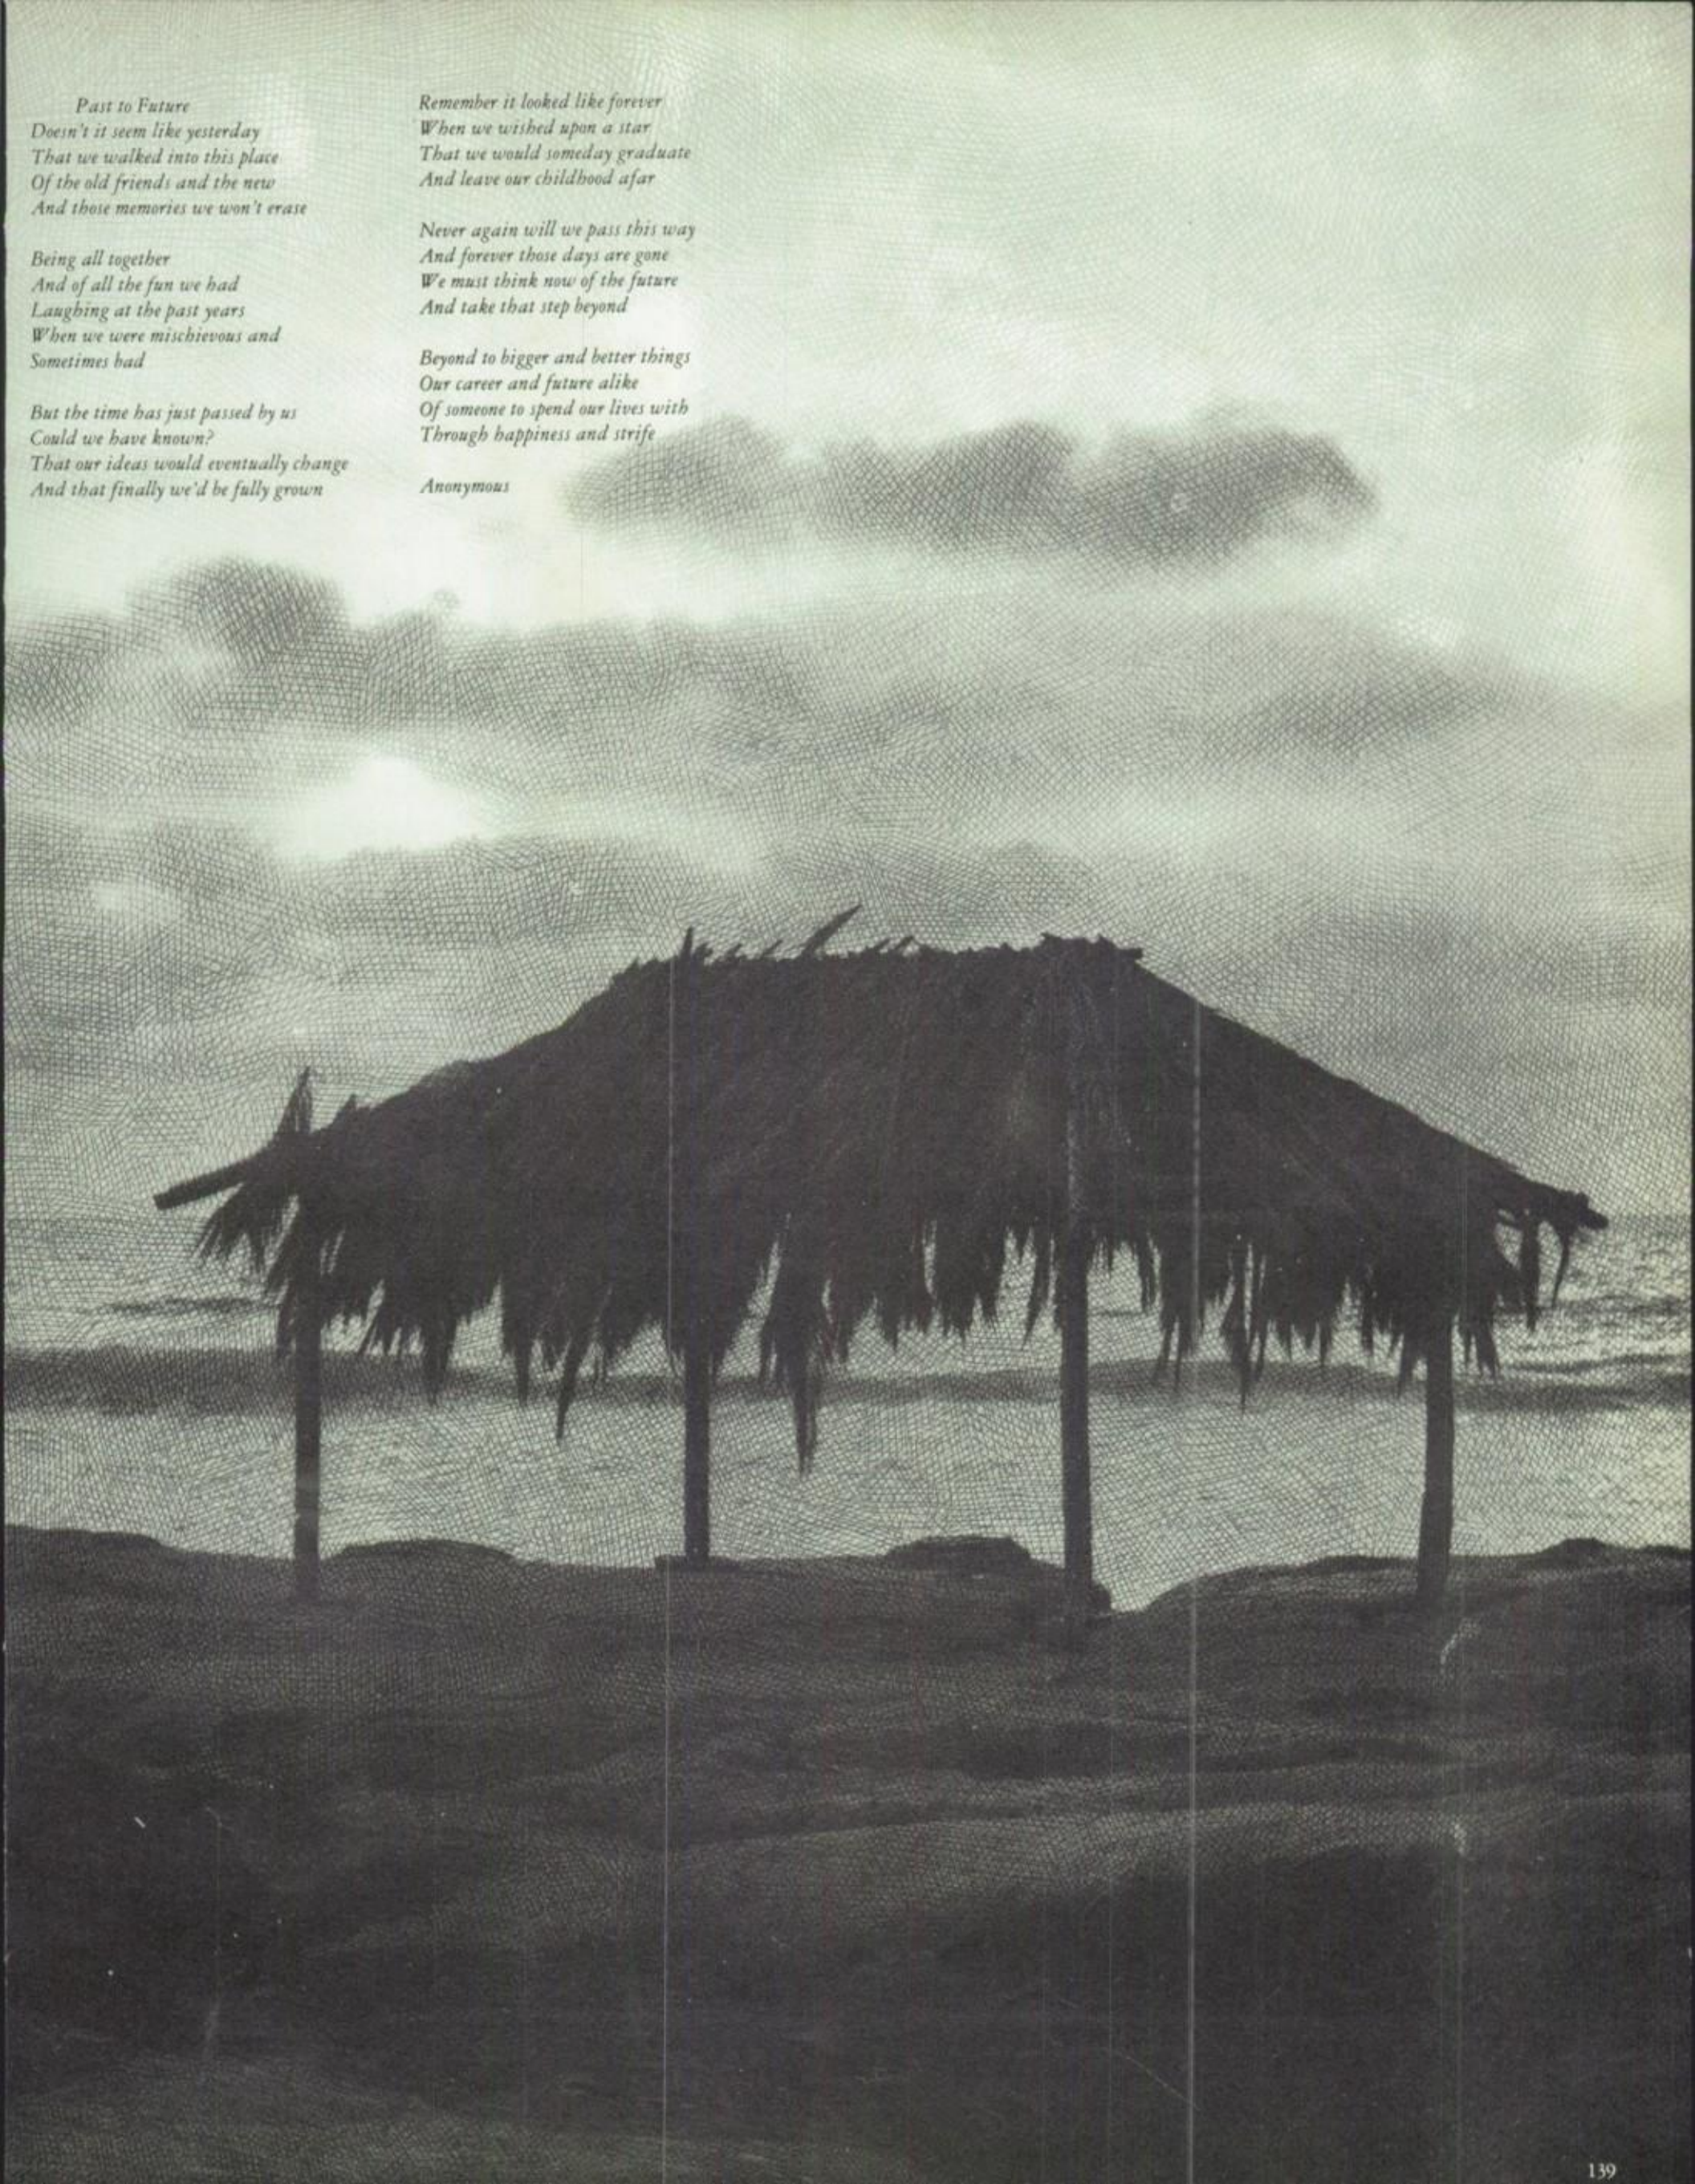

*But the time has just passed by us
Could we have known?
That our ideas would eventually change
And that finally we'd be fully grown*

*Remember it looked like forever
When we wished upon a star
That we would someday graduate
And leave our childhood afar*

*Never again will we pass this way
And forever those days are gone
We must think now of the future
And take that step beyond*

*Beyond to bigger and better things
Our career and future alike
Of someone to spend our lives with
Through happiness and strife*

The storm has gone by, and the year has come to the end. There have been days when I thought that all the turmoil of this year would never end. We've spent a lot of time and a lot of effort to write out the final pages. The pages were turned in, and all the memories will remain. Memories of last minute decisions, from a half-witted brain. I would like to thank the members of the annual staff for helping pull it all together. Ms. Deen, relax, we finally got all the pages in, and this annual is the best. Kris, this class was harder than we anticipated. Kris, someday I'll teach you how to crop pictures. I'd like to extend special thank you's to the following people.
